

NEW ARCHITECTURE

Dozens of current education programs would be combined, collapsed, and otherwise regrouped under new administrative umbrellas sketched out in the fiscal 2011 budget plan.

Existing Programs (38)

New Funding Streams (11)

TEACHING AND LEADERSHIP

Ready to Teach—$10.7 million
Teacher Quality State Grants—$2.9 billion

Effective Teachers and Leaders
$2.5 BILLION

Advanced Credentialing—$10.6 million
Teacher Incentive Fund—$400 million

Teacher and Leader Innovation Fund
$950 MILLION

School Leadership—$29.2 million
Teach For America—$18 million
Teacher Quality Partnership—$43 million
Teachers for a Competitive Tomorrow—$2.2 million
Transition to Teaching—$43.7 million

Teacher and Leader Pathways
$405 MILLION

CURRICULUM

Even Start—$66.5 million
Literacy Through School Libraries—$66.5 million
National Writing Project—$25.6 million
Reading Is Fundamental—$24.8 million
Ready-to-Learn Television—$27.3 million
Striving Readers—$250 million

Effective Teaching and Learning: Literacy
$450 million

Mathematics and Science Partnerships—$180.5 million

Effective Teaching and Learning: Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics
$300 million

Teaching American History—$119 million
Academies for American History and Civics—$1.9 million
Civic Education—$35 million
Close-Up Fellowships—$1.9 million
Excellence in Economic Education—$1.4 million
Foreign Language Assistance—$26.9 million
Arts in Education—$40 million

Effective Teaching and Learning for a Well-Rounded Education
$265 million

Educational Technology State Grants—$100 million
 (Note: Incorporating the use of technology is integrated into many ESEA programs.)

National Activities*

*Figures not available

Effective Teaching and Learning for a Complete Education
—$1 BILLION
 (Includes the four programs listed at right.)

COLLEGE READINESS

Advanced Placement—$45.8 million
High School Graduation Initiative—$50 million
Javits Gifted and Talented Education—$7.5 million

College Pathways and Accelerated Learning
—$100 million

SAFETY AND HEALTH

Alcohol Abuse Reduction—$32.7 million
Elementary and Secondary School Counseling—$55 million
Foundations for Learning—$1 million
Mental Health Integration in Schools—$5.9 million
Physical Education—$79 million
Safe and Drug-Free Schools and Communities National Activities—$191.3 million

Successful, Safe, and Healthy Students
—$410 million

SCHOOL CHOICE

Charter Schools Grants—$256 million
Credit Enhancement for Charter School Facilities—$8.3 million
Parental Information and Resource Centers—$39.3 million
Smaller Learning Communities—$88 million
Voluntary Public School Choice—$25.8 million

Expanding Educational Options
$490 million