

Presidential Field

Both the National Education Association and the American Federation of Teachers elect presidents in July. The NEA will have a new leader. Speculation is widespread that the AFT's Mr. McElroy does not intend to run again.

Edward J. McElroy has been president of the AFT since 2004. He can continue in that role as often as he's re-elected.

Reg Weaver must step down from the top post at the NEA after serving two three-year terms. He leaves in September.

If the NEA follows tradition, Dennis Van Roekel will be elected president in July. Randi Weingarten is the heir apparent to head the AFT, after running the union's largest affiliate.
