

Application Status

More than a dozen states had not submitted applications to the U.S. Department of Education for their share of the $48.6 billion state stabilization fund as of last week. The deadline to apply for the first round of that aid is July 1.

- Applications approved
- Applications pending
- Applications not submitted