

What We Know
About:

Effective Early Reading Instruction

EDUCATIONAL RESEARCH SERVICE

---

❖

Table of Contents

❖

---

Foreword .....	vi
Chapter One: Introduction .....	1
Purpose of This Book .....	2
Chapter Two: The Evolution of Reading Instruction .....	5
The Reading Debate .....	5
Legislation of Curriculum and Instruction .....	7
The Need for Balance .....	9
Chapter Three: Effective Reading Instruction .....	11
Laying the Foundation for Reading Success .....	12
A Language-Rich Environment: Fostering Emergent Literacy .....	12
Oral Language .....	13
Print-Rich Environment .....	13
Developing Children’s Motivation to Read .....	15
The Reading Process .....	15
A Consensus Emerges: Balanced Instruction Is Best .....	17
Chapter Four: The Elements of Good Reading Instruction .....	23
Teaching Decoding Skills .....	23
Phonemic Awareness .....	25
How Does Phonemic Awareness “Relate” to Phonics? .....	25
Some Approaches to Phonemic Awareness Training .....	26
Phonemic Awareness Training: Necessary but Not Sufficient .....	29
Developing Awareness of Sound-Symbol Correspondence .....	30
Teaching Phonics in Context .....	33
Teaching Sight Words .....	33

Fostering Reading Comprehension .....	35
Building Background Knowledge .....	36
Discussing Misconceptions .....	38
Vocabulary Development .....	38
Instructional Formats for Reading Literature .....	39
Reading Aloud .....	39
Shared Reading .....	40
Guided Reading .....	41
Independent Reading .....	42
Grouping for Reading Instruction .....	42
Phonics-Based and Meaning-Based Cueing Systems .....	42
Fluency .....	44
Appropriate Materials .....	44
Writing and Invented Spelling .....	47
Developmental Spelling Levels .....	47
Encouraging Independence in Spelling .....	49
Characteristics of Effective Literacy Instruction .....	50
Conclusion.....	52
Chapter Five: Early Identification and Assessment .....	53
Predictors of Reading Success and Failure .....	54
Guidelines for Identification and Assessment .....	55
Identification and Assessment Measures .....	57
Measures for Assessing Phonemic Awareness .....	57
Measures for Assessing Letter Knowledge .....	58
Measures for Assessing Word Reading Ability .....	58
Running Records .....	59
Comprehensive State- and District-Developed Approaches to Assessment.....	60
Categorizing Students as Learning Disabled or Educationally Disadvantaged .....	61
Chapter Six: Early Intervention for Children at Risk     of Reading Failure .....	65

Basic Elements of Early Intervention .....	66
Early Intervention Programs .....	68
Grouping Students with Reading Difficulties .....	76
Tutoring with Adult Volunteers .....	77
Ongoing Assessment .....	79
Chapter Seven: Fostering Literacy Before Kindergarten .....	81
Emergent Literacy Among Prekindergartners .....	81
Parents as Children’s First Teachers .....	83
The Role of Preschool Teachers .....	84
Interventions for At-Risk Prekindergarten Children .....	86
Intensive Preschool Programs .....	86
Family Literacy Programs .....	86
Chapter Eight: Implementing Effective Programs .....	89
Features of Effective Programs .....	89
Guidelines for Introducing Schoolwide Literacy Programs .....	91
Selecting a Reading Program .....	92
The Role of Teachers in Developing and Implementing High Quality Reading Programs .....	93
The Need for Teachers with Knowledge of Language .....	93
Professional Development for Teachers .....	95
The Allocation of Resources .....	97
Reading Specialists .....	97
Paraprofessionals and Volunteers .....	98
Reducing Class Size for Reading Instruction .....	98
Appropriate Reading Materials .....	98
Chapter Nine: Summary .....	101
Appendix: Brief Glossary of Terms Used .....	105
References.....	107